Rights of the data subject

As regards data processing, by way of the data protection official of the organization dealing with data processing, may ask for information on data processing.

The person concerned, based on an information request, may learn (if it is not subject to a restriction based on interest specified in a legal act) if a police data processing unit processes his/her data and is entitled to receive information in connection with data processed related to his/her person:

- for what purpose is his/her data processed,
- what is the legal basis for data processing,
- since when and until when is his/her data processed (duration),
- what data are processed,
- addressees of the personal data and categories of the addressees,
- forwarding to a third country or international organization,
- rights concerning data processing,
- legal remedy possibilities.

The police data processing unit shall reply to requests for information and access within one month. In certain cases (such as prevention or fighting crimes), the police data processing unit may deny providing information. In this case, the reply includes the legal provision providing a ground for denying information and also information on legal remedies.

If the data subject considers that the processing is in breach of the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation or that the processing of his or her personal data by the police data processing unit is prejudicial, he or she should contact the data protection official with the complaint. All complaints will be investigated.

If, despite having received a response to your complaint, you still have a grievance about the way your data is handled by the police data controller or you wish to contact the data protection authority directly, you can lodge a complaint with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, whose contact details can be found at <https://www.naih.hu/1.1-kapcsolat,-elerhet-seg.html>.

To protect your data, you have the right to apply to the courts, which will rule on the case out of turn. In this case, you can decide whether to bring your claim in the court of your domicile (permanent address) or the court of your residence (temporary address) (<https://birosag.hu/torvenyszekek>).

You can find the court in your place of residence or domicile at <https://birosag.hu/birosag-kereso> .
